

The Wilson 3D Quad Helix Appliance

The 3D Quad Helix Appliance is a multi-purpose appliance with the capabilities that extend beyond lateral arch development. This appliance can be used for unilateral expansion, molar rotation, molar buccal or lingual tip, molar buccal or lingual torquing, and selective cuspid or Bicuspid Expansion.

